Be like Abubakr (R.A)

Abu Huraira narrated; I heard Allah's Apostle (May Peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) saying,

"Anybody who spends a pair of something in Allah's Cause will be called from all the gates of Paradise, "O Allah's slave! This is good.' He who is amongst those who pray will be called from the gate of the prayer (in Paradise) and he who is from the people of Jihad will be called from the gate of Jihad, and he who is from those' who give in charity (i.e. Zakat) will be called from the gate of charity, and he who is amongst those who observe fast will be called from the gate of fasting, the gate of Raiyan."

Abu Bakr said, "He who is called from all those gates will need nothing," He added, "Will anyone be called from all those gates, O Allah's Apostle?" He said, "Yes, and I hope you will be among those, O Abu Bakr."

Sahih Al-Bukhari – Book 57 Hadith 18

Abu Said al-Khudri, may Allah be pleased with him, narrated that the Prophet (May Peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), prayers and peace of Allah be upon him, said,

"There is no one who had done more favor to me with his life and property than Abu Bakr ibn Abu Quhafa. If I were to take a Khalil (very close friend), I would certainly have taken Abu Bakr as one but the Islamic brotherhood is superior. Close all the small doors in this mosque except for that of Abu Bakr."

Coronavirus Emergency Appeal

Last month, Crisis Aid announced they would be producing food boxes filled with essential items to help those who were struggling during the coronavirus outbreak.

Many are facing 12 weeks inside due to having health conditions and sadly a lot of people don't have family members or friends to help with their shopping.

Crisis Aid have created an essential items box that is delivered straight to their door so they don't have to venture to the supermarkets.

The essential box would be able to last people for a week and costs £10.

Around the time this essential box was launched, the supermarket shelves had been left bare. Many people panic bought items like toilet roll, pasta, rice and more, so the boxes came as a saviour to many.

Across the UK vulnerable people are at risk, therefore we need your support. Donate Now towards this coronavirus charity appeal and help save lives.

Fidyah - For those who can not fast

If Ramadan comes and a person is unable to fast and can't make up the lost days afterwards because he is elderly or sick with no hope of recovery, then he is not obliged to fast. So he should not fast and he should feed one poor person for each day. This is known as Fidyah.

Ibn Qudaamah said in al-Mughni (4/396): If fasting is too difficult for an old man or an old woman, and will cause them intense hardship, then they are allowed not to fast, and they should feed one poor person for each day. If they are also unable to feed a poor person, then they do not have to do anything, for "Allaah burdens not a person beyond his scope" [al-Baqarah 2:286].

If a sick person has no hope of recovery, he is allowed not to fast, and he should feed one poor person for each day, because he comes under the same ruling as an old man.

Feed the fasting

Prophet Muhammad (Peace and Blessings of Allah Be Upon Him) said: "Whoever feeds the person who is breaking his fast, he will have his reward (for his fasting) without decreasing anything from the reward of the fasting person." [At-Tirmidhi]

One of the most preferred acts of charity that a Muslim can perform during the blessed month of Ramadan is to feed other Muslims who are fasting. By supplying food to those who are fasting you will not only reap the benefits of your own fast, but also receive the equivalent amount of rewards of those who break their fast on one of your meals.

Crisis Aid considers this campaign to be one of their main priorities during Ramadan. With your help, funds can be allocated to specific countries, and our local field officers can prepare and distribute food to all those who need to break their fast. The donation amount is generally the cost of providing one daily meal to a fasting person, and this is determined at the beginning of Ramadan.

You could also provide an extra meal for Suhoor for an additional £2 per day.

Kaffarah

This is expiation due for deliberate breaking of the obligatory fasts in the month of Ramadan due to sexual relations with one's spouse whilst fasting.

In this case the expiation is severe: to free a slave. If that is not possible, then one must fast for two consecutive months; if he is not able to do that, then he must feed sixty poor people.

Prophet Muhammad (Peace and Blessings of Allah Be Upon Him) said:

"It makes no difference whether ejaculation occurred or not, so long as intercourse took place. If ejaculation occurred without intercourse no expiation is required, but one still incurs sin and must refrain from eating and drinking for the rest of the day, and must make up that fast."

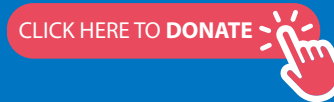

Crisis Aid can pay your kaffarah on your behalf at the cost of £4 per person. For example to feed 60 people that will be £240.

Sadaqah/Lillah

Sadaqah is an entirely voluntary charity which can be performed at any time of year, and any amount can be given. Unlike zakat, which has a number of stipulations regarding the type of assistance it can provide, sadaqah can be used for any project or programme which is of benefit to people.

Those who spend their wealth [in Allah 's way] by night and by day, secretly and publicly - they will have their reward with their Lord. And no fear will there be concerning them, nor will they grieve. (The Noble Qur'an 2:274)

SADAQAH/LILLAH

Sadaqah (giving in charity) is a deed designed to eliminate the spiritual malady of miserliness. But because the heart of the giver is not immune from show and insincerity, it has been emphasized that Sadaqah should always be given secretly. Certainly, Riyaa (ostentation) and miserliness are both very destructive diseases and Sadaqah that is rendered secretly is a powerful remedy for them.

Sadaqah (voluntary charity) is a virtuous deed in Islam. In fact, it is considered as a proof of one's eeman (faith).

Zakat al-Fitr (Fitrana)

First of all it should be understood that there is a difference between Zakat ul Fitr which is given at the end of Ramadan and Zakat on one's wealth. Zakat al-Fitr is an important part of Ramadan and a key charity given for the love of Allah (SWT). It must be given before Eid prayer in the form of what is considered as staple food in the community.

Ibn `Abbas (may Allah be pleased with him) reported: "Prophet Muhammad (Peace and Blessings of Allah Be Upon Him) ordained Zakat ul Fitr to purify the fasting person from indecent words or actions, and to provide food for the needy. It is accepted as zakah for the person who gives it before the Eid prayer; but it is a mere sadaqah for the one who gives it after the prayer." [Abu Dawud and Ibn Majah]

The quantity is described by the Prophet Muhammad (Peace and Blessings of Allah Be Upon Him) as one saa' of food. One saa' is equivalent to four madd. A madd is the amount that can be scooped up when one puts their hands together. If we translate this into a monetary value based on the price of a staple food such as flour or rice, it is approximately £4. Therefore the amount due for each person is £4.

Zakat

Zakat is not just a fundamental pillar of Islam – it is also a revolutionary concept with the potential to ease the suffering of millions around the world. All for the love of Allah (SWT) in obedience to Him.

As Allah (SWT) tells us in the Holy Qur'an: "Zakat expenditures are only for the poor and for the needy and for those employed to collect [zakat] and for bringing hearts together [for Islam] and for freeing captives [or slaves] and for those in debt and for the cause of Allah and for the [stranded] traveler - an obligation [imposed] by Allah. And Allah is Knowing and Wise." (Qur'an 9:60)

Zakat is a right that the poor have over us as for "those in whose wealth there is a recognised right for the needy and the poor" (Qur'an 70:24-25)

At Crisis Aid, we use your Zakat in the most effective way possible to relieve the suffering of the world's most needy and vulnerable people.

Ramadan Food Parcels

Every day millions of parents across the globe struggle to feed their children a nutritious meal. In a world where we produce enough food to feed everyone, 821 million people – one in nine – still go to bed on an empty stomach each night. Even more – one in three – suffer from some form of malnutrition.

Allah has said: "Have you seen the one who denies the recompense? For that is the one who drives away the orphan. And does not encourage the feeding of the poor." (Quran 107:1-3)

This Ramadan let us feed the poor around the world by providing a complete food parcel for a family of six which will last them the whole month of Ramadan. Ramadan Food Parcels provide food for a family of 6 for an entire month.

The Prophet Muhammad (Peace and Blessings of Allah Be Upon Him) said: "When the month of Ramadan arrives, the doors of mercy are opened."

Water For Life

According to the World Health Organisation, around 768 million people in the world – about one in ten people – live without access to safe, clean water. A further 2.4 billion, one-third of the world's population, do not have adequate sanitation.

For children to grow up healthy and happy, they need access to clean water, proper sanitation, and good hygiene. Water, sanitation and hygiene are basic human rights.

Crisis Aid works globally to provide people with access to clean water and sanitation. The type of communities we work with vary greatly so our approach reflects this. Assessing the need for water on an individual basis, we tailor our solutions to specific problems. Crisis Aid provides water tankers, water pumps and water wells.

The Prophet (may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said:
"The best charity is giving water to drink" (Ahmed)

Aisha (may Allāh be pleased with her) reported: I asked:

"O Messenger of Allah! If I realise Laylat-al-Qadr (Night of Decree), what should I supplicate in it?" The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allāh be upon him) replied, "You should supplicate: Allahumma innaka 'afuwwun, tuhibbul-'afwa, fa'fu 'anni (O Allah, You are Most Forgiving, and You love forgiveness; so forgive me)."

My 10 Nights

(Last 10 Nights of Ramadan)

My 10 Nights automates your donations over the last ten nights of Ramadan, so you never miss giving on Laylat-ul-Qadr again.

"Laylat-ul-Qadr is better than a thousand months" (93:7)

Ramadan is the most blessed time of the year so we all make stronger efforts to do good and benefit from the multiplied reward, more so during the last 10 nights which holds the most important night of the year: Laylat-ul-Qadr.

As part of our Ramadan activities, charity-giving has an important role as we donate from our hearts to be rewarded all the while helping our fellow humans in need. Although we make massive efforts to do more good, we know that Ramadan can be quite intense. We're living our regular daily lives with the additional Ramadan routine on top and so sometimes we may end up forgetting to donate, which is a huge opportunity missed - especially in the last 10 nights.

My 10 Nights is a platform that lets you automate your donations across the last 10 nights, so you never miss giving on Laylat-ul-Qadr again. We make sure your donation is processed as scheduled so you can always be confident about your donations.
